KANSAS, February 8, 1937: "Glad to report that the stock from you turned out to be a little above the average of the usual 'bully good' Chase stock. Some of it seemed almost too good for lining-out stock."

TEXAS, January 29, 1937: "You 'take the cake' on service. My order was at hand in so short a time."

INDIANA, December 26, 1936: "The Irish Junipers you sent me were the finest I have ever seen."

IOWA, December 29, 1936: "The second carload of nursery stock from your firm checked in in fine shape."
